TEACHERS INVOLVED: Lee Hayes, Tanya Kay, Yiota Seindanis, Mark Vigare & Ryan Van Den Brink

ACTIVITIES / OUTCOMES:

The students will visit 'Sprout' cooking school where they will participate in a 'hands on' cooking experience. Qualified chefs will guide the students through preparation of food, following a recipe and cooking techniques. Prioritised educational foci will be placed upon nutrition, hygiene, procedural texts and application of heat and change of matter.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION:

All students must wear school uniform and a school hat. Students will require recess and lunch as well as water to last the day. Please ensure the classroom teacher is informed if your child requires medication whilst on the excursion. The necessary medication must be in the original container, clearly marked with the child's name and with the appropriate health care plan. If the school holds medication and a current health care plan for your child, this will be provided to the supervising teacher for the excursion. Students who self manage their asthma must take their inhalers on the excursion.

We will require at least 2 parents to assist with supervision. The Department for Education requires all volunteers attending excursions to adhere to the following requirements:

- Attend an onsite Volunteer Induction
- Complete the Volunteer Induction online training
- Complete the Responding to Abuse and Neglect – Education and Care (RAN-EC) 2018-2020 online training
- Obtain a current DCSI child-related employment screening or Working With Children Check

The following documents must be completed and returned to the school front office:

- Volunteer Application Form
- Volunteer Site Induction Checklist
- Volunteer Agreement

Further information regarding the above can be obtained from the front office.

Please complete and return the slip below if you are able to help with supervision. The teacher will contact parents to confirm arrangements prior to the excursion. Until confirmation of your attendance has been made by the teacher to support the excursion, please do not schedule time off work.

Please return the consent form attached to the class teacher by Tuesday 4 August 2020.

Students must have written permission for excursions to be able to participate.
