

SUPERVISION POLICY

Supervision is an integral part of the whole care and education experience. “At its most basic level, supervision helps to protect children from hazards or harm that may arise in their daily experiences in play, interactions with others, and daily routines.” (Victoria Department of Education and Training, 2010, p.1). Effective supervision allows educators to actively engage in play and leisure opportunities that are meaningful to children and support their wellbeing, development and learning.

PURPOSE

Out of School Hours Care (OSHC) educators have a duty of care to ensure children are actively supervised at all times, maintaining a safe and secure environment adhering to Education and Care National Law and National Regulations. Supervision for children in OSHC requires educators to cater for a wide range of ages and abilities and requires flexibility and organisation to ensure thoughtful design and arrangement of children’s environments, assists in the prevention and severity of injury to children. Effective supervision of children provides educators with the opportunity to support and build on younger children’s play experiences whilst supporting older children’s independence.

Educators will actively supervise children, identifying risks and taking all necessary steps to prevent or minimise injury in a range of situations including, transitioning children between school and the Out of School Hours Care (OSHC) Service and whilst transporting children to and from the OSHC Service. Effective supervision of children provides educators with the opportunity to support and build on children’s play experiences. Our OSHC Service will ensure no child or children are left alone with a visitor, student or volunteer.

SCOPE

This policy applies to children, families, staff, educators, approved provider, nominated supervisor, students, volunteers and visitors of the OSHC Service.

IMPLEMENTATION

Our OSHC Service caters for children of different ages and abilities requiring educators to consider a variety of different supervision strategies. Younger children require closer supervision, whilst educators need to be respectful of older children's developing independence and autonomy.

In all environments, adequate supervision means:

- that an educator can respond immediately to a child
- knowing where children are at all times and monitoring their activities actively and diligently through frequent head counts and ratio checks
- educators using different skills when supervising and engaging with children- monitoring changes in noise and stress levels, using peripheral vision and changing position regularly
- assessing the risks in the environment and experiences children are engaged in when determining the number and positioning of educators
- Educators will recognise when they may be required to provide supervision in a separate area, without placing other supervision zones at risk.
